Saturday Market

MARKETPLACE • COMMUNITY • CELEBRATION

From Kirsten

Good Morning Saturday Marketers!
Today is going to be a fabulous Market. Should be lots of shoppers out and about!
I want to continue to remind you that if you have a problem at your booth, or around your booth, and don't feel you can handle it yourself through polite conversation, please call the office number at (541) 686-8885. The main office number is forwarded to the Information Booth, and we can send assistance. We have handouts to give to individuals that are busking, petitioning, etc. that inform them of our policies around their activities. Repeat offenders can be asked to leave by Security. We can't help if we don't know, so please reach out to us.
Here's a thought for the day..."Be happy, not because everything is good, but because you can see the good in everything."

Happy Selling!
Kirsten

I have a standing rule in my booth: Anyone may pet the pottery. Only grown-ups are allowed to pick it up. I have a lot of reasons for encouraging young people to appreciate pottery, not the least that they're my next generation of customers, but here's the best one:
Country Fair weekend, 2016: A couple with two little ones comes by. Papa is pushing a toddler in a stroller, Mama with a five-year old behind. She's describing to him what's in each booth, and I realize he's blind. So I invite them into the booth, explain the pot-petting rule, and encourage her to lift down the elephant bank for him to "see." Next it's the stegosaur, and he fingers the spines, hunting for the slot, and I tell him that the head is on the end between his Mama's hands, so he explores that, sticking his finger in its mouth. It's biting me! he jokes. No, it's an herbivore, I say. It's licking your hand because it likes you.
What else is here? he asks Mama, and gets to pet a cat bank next. What else? He probably would have spent the rest of the morning exploring, but Papa and sibling were six booths ahead, so they had to move on. Mama thanked me, and I thanked her for taking the time to show him my work.
I can't imagine how sad and boring Market would seem if you only had it narrated to you. So much better to be able to explore it firsthand.

Holiday Market Update!

AJ will start the booking process in the first week of August. Come by the info booth for a current map. If you have not turned in your application, you can still do so! Stop by the Info Booth or head to the Saturday Market website. New members with 0 Points can sell at Holiday Market. You will be able to get a space on the first weekend, and possibly other weekends! Turn in an application, and know it will be September before we get to your application.
Apply Online: On the website (eugenesaturdaymarket.org), look under the "For Market Members" or the "Holiday Market" menu items. Booth Holders of Record and Non-Reserve Members have separate applications. Applications for folks who are not yet Market members are available now.
Deposit: We require that you secure your space with an initial payment of $225 for a Main Hall space, $125 for a Holiday Hall, or $100 if you have less than 15 Holiday Market points. WE ARE DEPOSITING ALL HOLIDAY MARKET DEPOSIT CHECKS AND RUNNING CARDS RIGHT AWAY. Make arrangements with AJ if you need to give us a smaller deposit to start.

Community Corner

Good Morning! Summer is in full swing! Here are a few things to look forward to in the next couple weeks:
Steel Wool and Friends, Saturday, Kesey Square, July 21st, 6-10pm: A fundraiser for Opportunity Village with live music from several local groups and interactive activities led by the Slug Queen. Also Free!
Tuesday Market Family Day, July 24th, 11am-2pm: This is the 2nd Tuesday Market Family Day of the summer! Family friendly activities will be happening on both blocks between 11am and 1pm.
Downtown Visual Arts Festival, July 27 - August 3: Also known as 'The Week of Awesome'! Eugene celebrates the visual arts with a week-long downtown festival featuring the 20x21 EUG Mural Project's Eugene Walls, Eugene Biennial at the Karin Clark Gallery, the return of the Mayor's Art Show and Salon des Refusés, and the BRIDGE Exhibition with innovative, contemporary art installations. Visit eugene-or.gov/VAF for more information.
Eugene Sunday Streets, Sunday July 29th, 12pm-4pm: It's time for the 8th annual Eugene Sunday Streets, which is the City of Eugene's largest event of the year. The EUG Parade will kick things off at 10am at Monroe Park, and the parade route will continue down to the Park Blocks. From 12pm to 4pm, you can walk around downtown, participate in family friendly activities, shop local artists, grab a bite at a food cart, and enjoy live music. Don't miss out on this special day!
Questions? Please contact me at info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org.
Cheers to summer fun!
-Courtney

Book review by Cliff Martin, Market Member.

CRAFT ACTIVISM: PEOPLE, IDEAS AND PROJECTS FROM THE NEW COMMUNITY OF HAND-MADE AND HOW YOU CAN JOIN IN.

Author: Joan Tapper. Publisher: Potter Craft/Random House, New York, NY. 160 pages.

Nifty book that celebrates crafts as statement-makers (political or other causes) plus ways to hook up with other like-minded crafters. Crafts include knitting, collage, sewing, recycled/re-purposed crafts and more. Includes instructions on how to make specific items and lots of resources on how to start or join a crafts community (national and local). A cool little book! Available at Saturday Market's library.

Local Events

July 18-22 - Lane County Fair
July 29 - Eugene Sunday Streets
August 4 - Whiteaker Block Party
August 9-12 - Scandinavian Festival

The Kareng Fund

The Kareng Fund is an emergency relief fund set up to help low income, self-employed artisans and their families who experience a serious career threatening crisis. You can make a donation any time, just specify your donation on the front of your payment envelope. You can "round up" your fees to easily donate a little each week. You can also help the Kareng Fund every time you purchase something from Amazon.

To contribute through Amazon, go to smile.amazon.com and search for "Kareng Fund." From that point forward, every purchase you make through Amazon will benefit the Kareng Fund. Brochures are available at the Info Booth or on their website at www.karengfund.org.
