From Kirsten

Good Morning Saturday Marketers!
So glad you came out today! Our annual Market Wide Sale is today. There's been a lot of promotion around this so the shoppers should be out.
Every year we hold an Annual Meeting as required by our By-Laws. This meeting is far more than a required meeting. It is really the Family Fall Harvest Gathering and Annual Meeting. It is about getting the Saturday Market family together and celebrating another successful year. There is always business to attend to at these meetings, but that is just a part of the event. It is really about strengthening our relationships with each other. So bring your family and enjoy time with your Saturday Market family. I plan to bring my family. I hope you'll bring yours!
Also, we recognize one exceptional volunteer at the Family Fall Harvest Gathering. Please nominate someone from the market who has gone above and beyond to help us fulfill our goals through their volunteer efforts. Nominations should be sent to info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org. The winner will be announced at the Family Fall Harvest Gathering and Annual Meeting being held at the Longhouse at Lane Community College on Sunday, October 28th from 10 am – 2 pm.
The Holiday Market second round of invoices went out this week. Please plan on making the third payment on your balance by October 15th. Most balances should be paid off by November 15th, unless you are selling all six weekends, then your final payment is due December 15th. If you have any questions, please contact AJ Jackson, Membership.
Thought for the day... "The greatest virtues are those which are most useful to other persons." – Aristotle

Happy Selling!

Volunteer of the Month: Tym Mazet!

Thank you to Tym Mazet for all her hard work as a volunteer with our wonderful Saturday Market. Tym is an outstanding painter. She is a member of our Budget Committee as well as the Volunteer Task Force. She's our Treasurer and has served as a Board member in the past.

Volunteer for Budget Committee

Do you have experience or an interest in building budgets for organizations? If so, the Saturday Market needs you. We are looking for members to volunteer to join the Budget Committee. It meets several times during the winter months to build the next year's operating budget and then a couple times a year to review our financial progress to budget. If you are interested, please send an email to info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org. This is a Board appointed position and all interested individuals will be considered. If you have questions, please contact Kirsten Bolton at 541-686-8885.

M.V.P. Message

Member. Volunteer. Partner.

So hopefully you've noticed the clipboards on the table by the info booth in the mornings. They are at the info booth all day. Those are the sign-up sheets for your task at Holiday Market. Doing your work tasks at Holiday Market is a vital part of Holiday Market. We become our own mini mall/town for six weeks of every year. We do not have enough staff to do everything that needs to be done, hence the need for a work task.

When Holiday Market first started everybody did their work tasks and the market paid back their $25 to everyone. As time is going on it seems like it's easier just to let the market have your $25 and not do the task. Wrong. You are an integral part of Holiday Market. If you can't do your work task yourself, then you can ask a volunteer to do it for you. Once they have done the task for you and signed the sign out sheet in Vendor Services, you pay them your $25 refund. Keep in mind that the office will send the refund to you and then you must pay your volunteer.

You can do tasks before this Holiday Market even starts. Call the office to find out what those are. One of those early tasks is putting up posters. There are tasks to be done on Thursday during set up, putting up decorations helping unload the trucks different things like that. One of the easiest tasks to do is security. Especially morning security when you just have to sit there in a chair and open the door for members and make sure they are a member.

Please remember we are a family and we need to work together as a family. And one last tip, when you sign up for your work tasks it helps to right then and there put it in your phone calendar or whatever calendar you use. That way you'll get a reminder when it's your turn to do a task. And just a reminder if you don't do your task and you still want to get your money back the last task on the list that can get done is scraping tape off the floor of Holiday Market with a putty knife on the 26th. No one really wants to do that.

Volunteer for Equity Committee

Hello Saturday Market members!

Your Board of Directors formed an Equity Committee at its last meeting on October 3rd. We are seeking committee members who are interested in supporting and expanding market's efforts towards diversity and inclusion.

The Equity Committee supports Saturday Market's mission of promoting the social welfare of the community through low-barrier retail opportunities for artists and food businesses, cross-cultural interaction, and elimination of prejudice based on social class, age, race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, and cultural orientation. We work to ensure that Saturday Market's policies and procedures are equitable and create an inclusive environment for our members, staff, and customers. Our current projects include researching low-end fee relief for members, translating market documents and signage into Spanish, updating our documents to use inclusive language, and developing an equity and inclusion statement for our member handbook.

If you would like to serve on the Equity Committee or have suggestions for future projects, please come see me at Dana's Cheesecake or call the Saturday Market office.

Thank you, have a productive Saturday!
Willia Bauman
