From Kirsten

Good Morning Saturday Marketers!
Welcome back! Opening weekend was a huge success. The weather tried to cooperate and lots of shoppers were out. Today's weather will be a typical Spring day in Eugene.

Here's a prose poem that I hope you will enjoy. It reminds us that we are all in this together!

Desiderata (Latin: "desired things") – by Max Ehrmann, 1927

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

Happy Selling!
Kirsten

DAZ Permit Info

The city's permit program allowing people to purchase a $25 annual permit to sell within the Downtown Activity Zone has been extended to the Wayne Morse Plaza. This area is now under the city's control. The DAZ permit program is enforced by Eugene Police Department. Saturday Market has been issuing these permits for many years. Please visit www.eugene-or.gov for information or come see us in the 8th St. Info Booth.

M.V.P. Message

Member. Volunteer. Partner.

Welcome to the M.V.P section of our membership's weekly newsletter!

This section of the newsletter is for members to share their stories and experiences with other members. As a community, we build each other up. Our membership is filled with creativity and experience. Please share with your fellow marketers all that you have learned.

A few helpful hints include:

1. Stay positive. The message to convey is intended to assist and encourage members.
2. Share your experience. We have new members joining our market every other week. These new members will benefit from helpful tips. Sharing your knowledge and experience with our membership will make the entire market day better for everyone.
3. Entertain and explain. Your stories are wonderful, funny, and heartwarming. People get a kick out of hearing them. When you share a story, it's nice to include what the experience brought to your knowledge base regarding how to run your business, how to prepare for a market day, or how to display your products.

Try to keep your messages concise for space. If you send in a message that's too long, then I will ask you to edit it or allow me to edit it. The length of your message should not exceed 500 words.

Thanks for sharing!

If you would like to submit an article for the M.V.P. Message column, please submit it via email to info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org by noon each Wednesday.

50th Anniversary Task Force

We have a wonderful group of volunteers on the 50th Anniversary Task Force. We meet on the second Thursday of the month in the Saturday Market office at 3pm. This task force is working hard to bring fun events all year long. In addition to the fun, we are also focused on Saturday Market archives and commemorative opportunities to celebrate our rich history.

This year, we have opportunities to display our history in public locations outside of the Park Blocks. We have reserved space in the OSLP Lincoln Gallery in July. We also have space reserved for November and December at the Eugene Public Library. We are creating a display that includes information about the growth of the Market as well as showing off the amazing art our members bring every Saturday.

We need your help!

Please consider sharing a Saturday Market treasure for these displays. It doesn't have to be your own products. We would love to display works from members that are no longer selling with us alongside items from our current makers. Anything you loan to the market for this purpose will be tagged and returned to you. We will begin collecting these items right away.

JJ's Community Corner

Come support your fellow local artists and have some fun!

April 23rd: Come down to the Park Blocks and learn to dance traditional South African Gumboot and Pantsula dances. This event is free and open to all ages. 4-5:00pm.

May 1st: Stop, Drop, and Yoga will be on the Park Blocks with a led yoga flow suitable for mobile and adoptive populations. There will be music, community outreach, and activities for children. The event is free, and runs from 5:30-7:30pm

May 7th: Opening day of the Lane County Farmers Market's Tuesday Market! Saturday Market Members are invited to come down and sell on the East Park Block every Tuesday, May through October. Check-in is 8:30-9:00am. The hours are 10am-3pm. I'll be down there to help you get your space and your envelope. The fee is $5.00 plus 10% of sales. I will pick up envelopes at 2:45pm. We do not have an Info Booth for making change or credit card processing on Tuesdays. The Info Booth on Tuesday is for Farmer's Market only. Parking is tight on Tuesdays, and the Farmers Market has priority. Do not park along Oak Street. Unload your booth and then move your car.

Questions? I may have an answer! Please email me at info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org.

Enjoy the day!
-JJ

Guidebooks Are Here!

One of the missions of the Street Team is to promote our fellow Market members. This is why we created the Guidebook. We are delighted to have the guidebooks for our entire Saturday Market season this year!

The Guidebook is an amazing way to promote our Market. When one Market member advertises they are promoting all Market members. We encourage you to grab a handful of Guidebooks from the South Park Info Booth on Saturday morning to give to your customers. Customers love free things and the Guidebook is a wonderful souvenir & tool for enjoying Saturday Market. Open it up and show them where they're at - Your Booth! It's a fabulous way to help them remember where they saw you earlier in the day, something free to give and an opening into conversation with your customers. Put your business card into every Guidebook you hand out. Please feel free to take Guidebooks to your favorite hangouts and places you visit out of town. Help us spread the word about our amazing Market.

The Kareng Fund

The Kareng Fund is an emergency relief fund set up to help low income, self-employed artisans and their families who experience a serious career threatening crisis. You can make a donation any time, just specify your donation on the front of your payment envelope. You can "round up" your fees to easily donate a little each week. You can also help the Kareng Fund every time you purchase something from Amazon!

To contribute through Amazon, go to smile.amazon.com and search for "Kareng Fund". From that point forward, every purchase you make through Amazon will benefit the Kareng Fund, helping artisans in need. Brochures are available at the Info Booth or on their website at www.karengfund.org.

Credit Card Sales

Saturday Market accepts Visa, Mastercard, Discover, & American Express. Send your customer to the South Park Info Booth with a properly filled out credit card slip. Your check for the amount of the sale less 5% for bank charges will be ready on Wednesday at noon at the office or mailed at the end of the day Wednesday. Reserve members' checks are in your envelopes.

UnClassifieds

To place your free unclassified, bring it to the Info Booth by the end of the day, to the office by Thursday at noon, or e-mail it to us at info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org with "NEWSLETTER" in the subject.
