Saturday Market

MARKETPLACE • COMMUNITY • CELEBRATION

From Kirsten

Good Morning Saturday Marketers!
Welcome to another fantastic summer Saturday Market. The temperature should be hot, so try and stay cool and hydrated.

I want to thank Giorgi DeCarlo and Jaimee Gentile for their service to the market as Board members. They just finished their Board terms last Sunday. Both of them are incredible leaders and contributors to the Market. I also want to welcome Linda Lamb, Gary Becker and Anna Lawrence to the Board. Their knowledge will be a great addition to the Board.

Holiday Market booking has begun. If you haven't submitted your application and down payment yet, please do so. We want to make sure we don't miss anyone that is interested in selling at Holiday Market. Also, get your guidebook orders in. Applications are due August 10th with art work due August 20th.

We will be doing a membership survey during the month of August. We really want to know from you what is working and what isn't. Please pick up the survey at the Park St. information booth and only complete it once. Results will be tallied in September and we will use this information to make the Market better for everyone.

Thought for the day..."Life is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets. So, love the people who treat you right, forgive the ones who don't and believe that everything happens for a reason. If you get the chance, take it. If it changes your life, let it. Nobody said it would be easy, they just promised it would be worth it." – Dr. Seuss

Happy Selling!
Kirsten

Clown School Donations- Bring your Clown Clothes This Week!

We are having a great time celebrating our 50th Season this year, and we still have so much more coming up.

August 24th will bring the Clown School to the plaza by the stage on the East Block. The Clown School helps kids and adults transform into clowns including the red noses. After you have been outfitted in your best clown gear, you get to march in a clown parade through the Market. The Clown School will be set up from 11am-1pm with about 4 parades planned during that time.

Here's how you can help make it happen. We are in need of donated clothes to outfit our clowns. Now's the time to bring those nylon parachute pants out of the back of the closet. Anything brightly colored and in a variety of sizes is great and appreciated. We need everything: hats, shirts, pants, socks, ties, anything really except NO SHOES.

Please bring your clowny attire to the Info Booth or the office by August 10th. We will donate the clothes to the Clown School at the end of the event or you can come pick up your loaned items at the end of the day.

M.V.P. Message

Member. Volunteer. Partner.

Last Sunday I attended the open Saturday Market Board Meeting and Potluck. I must say, of the 600+ members, only a few attended. To me, that indicates the membership is happy and satisfied with everything, and I got my pick of delicious potluck entrees! Through out the meeting, I was so impressed by the work of both the volunteers, and the staff. The staff were incredible with the depth of their knowledge on the myriad subjects that came up. Including the major changes to the Park Blocks that are in the works for the future. We have one of the best sets of staff members ever. To watch the dance between the staff, and the Board was wonderful. They will always have our best interests in mind, and will fight for our Market to be the best it can be. I am very proud of them, and the Board during this difficult time. So, if you have a moment, I highly recommend acknowledging their hard work and diligence around how we make our living. Thank you.

Holiday Market Update

Holiday Market booking has begun! We are currently booking members with 59 points.

Reminders about booking:

1. Make sure we have current contact information on file for you including a daytime phone number and an email address. When you receive your call from AJ to book your space, you must respond quickly.
2. We call members using Holiday Market points to assign spaces. We will have updates on the booking process, including what points we are booking, in the newsletter every week once booking begins. Keep an eye on those updates so you know when to expect your call based on your Holiday Market points.
3. When making a Holiday Market payment at the Info Booth, please ask for a receipt. We depend on your receipts if there is an issue with your payment history.
4. Pick up a Holiday Market map and keep it handy. We have maps on the website here: https://eugen Saturdaymarket.org/pdf-files/HM_Maps.pdf. When you get the call to book your space, you will need the map to help guide your decision.

New market members will be called later in the process. If you are new this year, then be patient. We have spaces for you.

If you are sharing, then the Booth Share forms will be ready in September.

The Holiday Market Guidebook Advertising Pro Tips

It's so hard to believe that we're talking about the Holiday Market Guidebook in August, but it's happening and we don't want you to miss out! Next Saturday is the deadline to commit and we know one of the top questions on your mind. What if I don't know my booth space yet? No problem! Here are a couple of tips.

Most of the booth assignments will be completed before the Holiday Market Guidebook goes to print. Go ahead and create your ad and submit it on schedule, but leave space to include your booth number as soon as you know it. Include a note with your submitted ad, so we know that you're waiting to submit your final ad with your booth number.

That might lead to another question. What if I'm in a different space every weekend? This is also not a problem. Holiday Market customers know that there is a fresh Artist Directory every weekend next to the Guidebooks at every point of entry. Simply include a list the weekends you will be set up and reference the Directory or the Info Booth for your exact location.

Buying an ad in the Holiday Market Guidebook lets your customers know you're there and how to find you. And when the Market season is over, the Guidebook can even tell your customers how to find you in the off season. What a great deal!
