Saturday Market

MARKETPLACE • COMMUNITY • CELEBRATION

From Beth

The Market is literally at a crossroads. Folks cross over to the four corners throughout the day. Each block has its own personality and those who connect with it as home. And while we claim a little bit of territory on the northwest corner where the Information Booth is located, the Eugene Saturday Market holds court on the two southern park blocks of our sweet green park crisscrossed with wide avenues and plazas. The Park Blocks serve as a respite from the urban hubbub during the week but we transform the space into a collection of sweet boutiques and storefronts, weaving a pathway through neighborhoods where color and light, music and good food are offered.

This is more than a public park to us. It is a metaphor for where things that are important to us meet—both abstract and physical. Art makes life better. Community and music bring quality to who we are as individuals. When we meet for these seven hours each week we bring with us everything we lived through during the week. When we all comes together, it creates a vibrant healing energy.

Meeting together at these Crossroads is harder than it looks. It takes an effort to choose peace, to craft cooperation, to form a Market. But it is one of the most precious thing we do. Bring everything good thing you have to the Eugene Saturday Market.

And have a lovely Saturday.

~Beth

Counterfeit $100 Bills

According to a report in yesterday's Register Guard:

"Police in Eugene and Springfield say counterfeiters are bleaching $5 bills and reprinting them as high-quality, yet completely phony, $100s. The bogus bills have been passed at more than a dozen local businesses in recent weeks.

Police say the easiest way to identify one of the counterfeit C-notes is to hold it up to a light to check the bill's embedded watermark. If Franklin's sullen mug appears, it's the real deal. But if it's the bearded Lincoln in there, the bill is surely a fake."

If you're ever uncomfortable taking a big bill, please send the customer to the Info Booth for change.

Market Cards Available

Doing an out of town show? Want folks to know you sell at Market? "Handcrafted by a member of Eugene Oregon's Saturday Market" business cards are available free at the Info Booth. You can also tuck them into on site purchases to remind folks that it's handmade!

The next committee meeting will be the Standards Committee on Wednesday, Aug. 18 after pre-screening. The will continue to discuss the definition of a generic garment.

Eugene Celebration Early! Early Check In As Well! Last Weekend of August

This year's Eugene Celebration is Aug. 27-29. We will do just a regular 10-5 Market day on Saturday August 28. As in the past, the major change for us will be checking in and loading in one hour early.

This year the Community Causeway will not ring the Market on Park Streets, which will make load in and out much easier! The other change of note is that the Parade will be starting at 10 AM, half an hour later than usual.

If you'd like to walk in the Parade and represent the Market along with other Unique Eugene businesses, get in touch with Kim at the stage. She loves to have Marketeers as company along the route. Let's not get lost among the Sundance fruits & veggies and Paul's Bike gang! This time we'll get to boogie along to the Kiva house band, so it will be fun! It generally takes 30 minutes or so to walk the Parade, and it's fun to hear folks shouting out hellos and hoorays for the Market as we walk along.

Aug. 18-22 - Lane County Fair
Aug. 27-29 - Eugene Celebration
