From the Office

Greetings Artisans!

As many of you already know, Holiday Market 2023 postcards went out last week. We do have blank ones at the Info Booth if you did not receive one. We are very excited to reveal the new Holiday Hall map which includes 10'x10' booths! The Exhibit Hall has a brand-new name: Evergreen Hall. We anticipate a fabulous Holiday Season, so get all signed up and squared away. July 14th is the booking deadline for Booth Holders of Record. Non-Booth Holders of Record have until August 18th to submit their application.

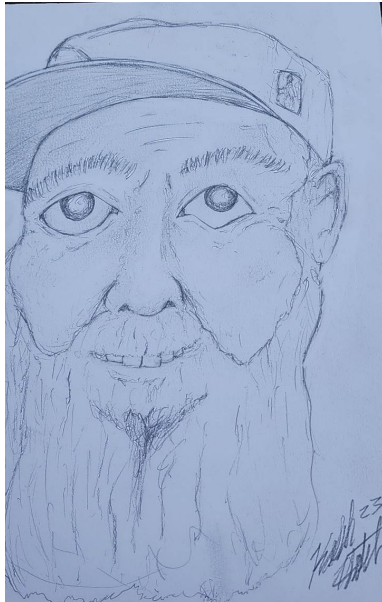

A few announcements:

1. We have some new Site Crew Team Members this weekend, so keep an eye out and be sure to let them know how much The Market cherishes our Site Crew!
2. We still have a trash situation on the Park Blocks. If you need to dump in the dumpster, please allow Site Crew to collect and manage it. Please do not visit the dumpster yourself.
3. We still have issues regarding Unloading and Loading in the morning and afternoon. Please remember that, at most, you have 20 minutes to load/unload your vehicle. With all the construction, we all must be precise, considerate, and work like a well-oiled machine.

Call to Artists: HM23 Poster/Guidebook

Greetings our talented and wonderful artisans. You may have noticed something special about your envelope today, thanks to Gayle, Maia, and Dara for helping spread the word about this special opportunity to showcase your work on the 2023 Holiday Market Poster and Guidebook Cover.

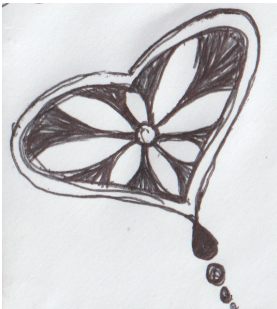

There are two sheets inside your envelope today, one explaining the Call to Artists guidelines and deadlines, and another that is more of a form. If anyone has any questions about this process, you may speak to Renee or anyone else on the Guidebook Team. The deadline to submit a completed proposal is 11:59p.m. on July 20th, 2023.

We are also still asking for volunteers to help make our Guidebook as good as it can be. Those interested in this project or interested in learning more about volunteering can email Heather Robbins-Hinton at:

or Renee Thompson at:

Hello Friends!

The Oregon Country Fair is about a month away. We have been lucky enough to get a non-profit space in Xavanadu space X09 across from white bird and KOCF for the last 3 years, and we will be back there again this year. We have been brainstorming some fun activities to get people involved and direct people without day passes for Saturday to the Market. If you are interested in learning more about what we plan on doing at OCF reach out to: info@eugenesaturdaymarket.org.

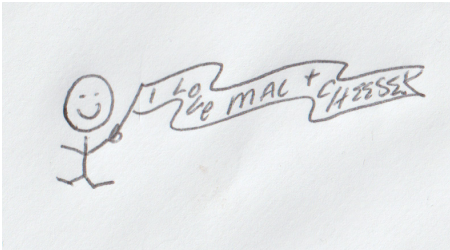

Holiday Market Orientations will be available for new members and longtime members who need a refresher about how everything works once we go inside. Dates for these Holiday market specific orientations will be August 9th and 23rd, September 13th and 27th, then October 11th and 25th. All of them are Wednesdays from 3pm-4:30pm. With so much extra room we are going to reach out to other local markets for people interested in joining us for the holiday season. So if you know anyone looking for a way to sell their wares for the Holidays, tell them to call us and get signed up for a holiday market orientation now.

Booth Weights Available

Booth weights are required for pop-up booths and umbrellas. A flying booth can cause a lot of harm. Your booth/set-up should always be properly weighted.

We have canvas weight bags with clips available at the Info Booth or during the week in the office for $10 each or four for $35. They are not filled. You will have to do that yourself, but it's easy and inexpensive. You can purchase weighty material of your choice for about $5 or less at Lane Forest Products, Home Depot, and/or Lowe's.
