Greetings Artisans!

I hate to start off with some bad news, but I must report that our Market Manager Renee Thompson has been ill and has requested a personal leave of absence through the Saturday Market Season. If you would like to send cards or a message, you can drop them off at the office, but please respect Renee's privacy in this matter. We anticipate a triumphant healthy return before the Holiday Market!

Our Marketing Assistant Rachael Bolton will be filling in to execute Holiday Market Marketing Plan and your Sweet Silver will be helping with Guidebook, business cards and additional promotions.

Now, any good news? Well, hell to the YES! I do not want to ruin the surprise, but please be sure to read the Unclassified section (on the back). I love this Community and am so happy to be a small part of an epic Saturday Market love story. Whether you are selling or not, mark your calendars for noon Saturday, September 14th, as we celebrate!

Now, for today... enjoy the cooler weather, greet your neighbor with a smile and prepare for great sales!

She Said Yes... Again! Everyone's Invited to the Wedding!

Tie-Dye artists and jewelers, Jenni Calef and Steven Tucker will be renewing their wedding vows on the Saturday Market stage on September 14, 2024.

On September 15, 2007, Jenni and Steven were married, the first time, on the Market stage. Because they had already been a couple for 17 years, at that point, their wedding vows to each other were: "I promise to keep doing what I've been doing for the past 17 years."

Since those first 17 years culminated in their marriage and those vows, they decided that they should renew those same vows every 17 years! To keep them up-to-date... It has been 17 years. Hope to see you there.

And mark the date in 2041 for the next time!!!
